STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

According to Paul Wilson, this house was occupied by David and Sally Proctor. It stood on land purchased by David Moody and then by William J. Proctor (STH 280/145). David and Sally Proctor were allowed to live here, though they had sold their claim to the land to William Proctor in 1907.

According to Paul Wilson, David Proctor was a brother of William Proctor. This is confirmed in the deed STH 280/145. Levi D. Proctor in the deed is most likely Levi David Proctor, and his wife Sarah was probably known as Sally. Levi and William Proctor appear to be brothers in the deed. David Proctor was probably named after his grandfather, David Moody.
